Frequently Asked Questions

Q Are the dorms secure and monitored?

A Yes. The dorms are only accessible by key and only campers and staff have access. All dorms are staffed by Housing and Residence Life and are monitored by campus police.

Q What is the dorm room set up?

A Each dorm room is set up for 2 people (2 twin beds, 2 dressers, & 2 desks). Each room is connected to another room by a bathroom.

Q Are there laundry facilities?

A Yes. Campers will have access to laundry facilities during camp. Detergent not provided. Washer - $1.00 Dryer - $.75 Exact change is required or ApplePay.

Q Is there WiFi in the dorm rooms?

A Yes. All dorm rooms are equipped with Wifi access. Additional instructions will be provided at camp check-in.

Q What if my room key is lost?

A Keys are labeled and assigned to each camper. Campers are responsible for their keys at all times. If lost, campers must pay a $75 replacement fee (card on file will be charged).

Q Are bed linens provided?

A No. Bed linens are not provided, but are available for rent from UCF Housing. The fee is $40. Please contact cfgscamps@gmail.com to request.

Q Are meals included in the price of camp?

A Breakfast, Lunch, & Dinner included.

Q If I am a Commuter, where do I go during “free time”?

A During free time, we provide commuter designated rooms where you will have access to restrooms, a common area and a place to hangout with other campers.

Q What if I have food allergies or specific dietary needs?

A UCF Dining Halls provide vegetarian options and also accommodate: nut, gluten, and dairy free diets. If you require additional needs, please let us know.

Q Are snacks available between and after field sessions?

A Yes. A variety of snacks & drinks (Gatorade, candy, chips, etc.) are available for purchase from our camp store. Pizza is also available for purchase in the evenings.

Q What if my daughter requires special medical attention?

A A certified trainer is at all field sessions and is also present in the dorms for any overnight medical needs.
